

ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY Report

Media Relations News Service

August 21, 2009 • Volume 46, Number 2

www.mediarelations.ilstu.edu
News Hotline: (309) 438-8371 • report@ilstu.edu

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

Media Relations/News Service publishes a quarterly special issue of Report dedicated to faculty/staff accomplishments, presentations and publications.

Please e-mail items that occur after the August 21 Faculty-Staff Report to kjbeal@ilstu.edu

Media Relations/News Service staff will contact faculty/staff for further interviews and photographs.

College of Fine Arts Accomplishments

Bill O'Donnell, ART, was awarded an Artist's Residency in Lake Forest by the Ragdale Foundation.

David Williams, ART Emeritus, was elected president of the College Music Society.

Presentations

Deb Alley, directed "A Midsummer Night's Dream" for the Illinois Shakespeare Festival and was artistic director for the Festival in Normal.

David Collier, MUS, directed the Illinois State University percussion ensemble in a concert for the Illinois Chapter of the Percussive Arts Society at Northern Illinois University; adjudicated percussion auditions and presented "Performance Techniques for the High School Timpanist" at the Illinois Music Educators convention in Peoria; performed as timpanist for John Rutter's "Gloria" and presented master classes at six Illinois schools; served as percussion coordinator for the Music for All National Music Festival in Indianapolis, Ind.; and performed "Symphonie mit Acht Obligaten Pauken" by Johann Fischer with the Illinois Symphony Orchestra in Bloomington and Springfield.

Amy Gilreath, MUS, was a guest artist at the International Trumpet Guild conference in Harrisburg, Pa., and served as a judge for the high school solo competition.

Harold Gregor, ART Emeritus, had the paintings and watercolors show, "Radiant Plains," at the University Galleries.

Ann Haugo, THE, presented "Mapping the Terrain: Thoughts on Coalition Building in Ecotheatre and Indigenous Theatre" at the Earth Matters on Stage: Ecodrama Playwrights Festival and Symposium in Eugene, Ore.

Cynthia Kukla, ART, had four drawings featured in the international exhibition, Tallinn Drawing Triennial, at the National Library Tallin, Estonia, taught a master class for the Academy of Art's "Drawing Marathon" at the triennial and presented "Archeology of Meaning" at the Eesti Kunstiakademia (Tallin Academy of Art).

Kimberly McCord, MUS, presented "Swingin' in General Music and Teaching Music to Performers with Special Needs" at the National Association for Music Education Jazz, General Music and Performance Academy in Washington, D.C., "Students with Severe Physical Disabilities Performing Jazz" at the Council for Exceptional Children conference in Seattle, Wash., and "Teaching Children with Severe Physical Disabilities, Assistive Technology, Extraordinary Children Doing Ordinary Things" at the New Jersey Music Educators Association conference in East Brunswick, N.J.

Jack McLaughlin-Gray, THE, appeared as Edward in William Nicholson's "The Retreat from Moscow" at Artists' Ensemble in Rockford.

Joe Neisler, MUS, and the Illinois State University Horn Choir performed at the International Horn Society's 41st international symposium in Macomb.

Adriana La Rosa Ransom, MUS, and the Illinois State University String Project performed, and Ransom presented the poster "The ISU String Project" and the video "String Project Best Practices: Recruiting" at the American String Teachers Association national conference in Atlanta, Ga.

Kim Risinger, MUS, was the soloist at the Arz Vitalis New Music Concert at the Merkin Concert Hall in New York City, N.Y., premiering a flute and piano piece written for her, "Song of My Nights," and giving two other premieres of the pieces "Nocturne and Dithyramb" and "A Song of Coming Awake."

Michelle Vought, MUS, performed "Madame Monsieur" at the Arts Partners conference in Peoria and "Dazzling Diva!" at a recital in Peoria.

Deb Alley, THE, directed "Flyin' West" at the Clarence Brown Lab Theatre at the University of Tennessee-Knoxville.

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

Pam Walden, Registrar's Office, presented "Thinking Outside the Higher Ed Departmental Box" and was on the "Expanding ImageNow CampusWide" panel at the Inspire 2009: The ImageNow User conference in Hollywood, Fla.

Li Zeng, THE, presented "The Chinese Horror and the Return of the Historical Trauma: The Lonely Ghost in the Dark Mansion" at the Josai International University media workshop in Japan.

Publications

Susan Appel, ART, wrote "Pre-Prohibition American Breweries," which was published in Brewer and Distiller International, Vol. 5.

Ann Haugo, THE, edited "Persistent Memories: An Interview with Spiderwoman Theatre," which was published in Performing Worlds into Being: Native American Women's Theater.

Kimberly McCord, MUS, wrote "Improvisatory Musical Experiences in the Lives of Children with Severe Disabilities," which was published in Music Experience in Our Lives and "An ISME Member's Music Education Experience: Learning to Teach from Non-verbal Students with Physical Disabilities" in the International Society for Music Education Newsletter.

Melissa Johnson, ART, wrote "Weimar Cultural Production: Visual Pleasure and Radical Critique in the Work of Hannah Höch," which was included in Essays on Women's Artistic and Cultural Contributions 1919-1939: Expanded Social Roles for the New Woman following the First World War.

Li Zeng, THE, wrote "The Return of Horror to Chinese Cinema: An Aesthetic of Restraint and Horror" and "From Centripetal to Centrifugal Trauma: History and Representation in Modern China," which were published in Jump Cut: A Review of Contemporary Media, Vol. 51, and "The Road to the Past: Socialist Nostalgia in Postsocialist China" in Visual Anthropology, Vol. 22.

Provost Accomplishments

Susan Deason, Extended University, was elected secretary of the Illinois Council of Continuing Higher Education.

Presentations

Susan Deason, Extended University, presented "Baccalaureate Completion Partnerships: The Current Landscape and Models of Success" at the annual conference of the Illinois Council of Continuing Higher Education in Chicago, and "State-wide Collaboration to Serve Place-Bound Adult Learners" at the annual conference of the University Continuing Higher Education in Boston, Mass.

Dave Greenfield, Student Technology Support Services, Anne Newman and Rick Olshak, Dean of Students, presented "Transforming our Practice: Getting our Campus and Yours from Illegal P2P File Sharing to Good Digital Citizenship" at the 21st annual conference of the Association for Student Conduct Administration in Clearwater Beach, Fla.

Student Affairs Accomplishments

Kerri Calvert, Student Health Services, was elected vice-chair of the Mid-America College Health Association.

Laura Knoblauch, Student Health Services, was elected the Illinois member at large for the Mid-America College Health Association.

Ronald Swan, University Police, received the Health and Safety Award from the Normal Rotary Club.

Aaron Woodruff, University Police, was elected law enforcement co-chair of the Minority and Police Partnership.

Presentations

Guadalupe Montalvo, UHS, presented "Write Right: How to Effectively Use Expository Writing in and out of the Classroom" at the Associated Colleges of Illinois Statewide Leadership conference in Springfield.

Z. Paul Reynolds, BSC, presented "The Administration of Student Employment Programs" at the Association of College Unions International conference in Anaheim, Calif.

Publications

Z. Paul Reynolds, BSC, wrote "The Administration of Student Employment Programs," which was published in Enhancing Student Development through College Employment.

University Advancement Presentations

Annette States Levitt, Alumni Relations, presented the webinar, "New Social Networking Uses to Reach Alumni and Students" for Academic Impres-

Andrew Nyenya, UHS, presented "Racism and Sexism On and Off Campus" at the Associated Colleges of Illinois Statewide Leadership conference in Springfield.

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

sions and “Using Social Networks to Connect with Students and Alumni” for the Eastern Community Colleges advisory cabinet in Monticello.

Finance & Planning Presentations

Robin Knapp and Rachel Volpe, Redbird Card Office, presented “Account Reconciliation and Other Card Office Procedures” at the National Association of Campus Card Users conference in Orlando, Fla.

College of Arts & Sciences Accomplishments

John Binning, PSY, received the Distinguished Teaching Contributions Award from the Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology.

Joseph Blaney, COM, received the Experimental Audio award from the National Broadcasting Society for “CommPod Homecoming Special” and won the Radio Commercial award for “Copper Top Lounge.”

Robert Bradley, POL, was named Individual Trail Friend of the Year by the Friends of the Constitution Trail for his development of signs commemorating the U.S. Constitution.

Sam Catanzaro, PSY, was named a Fellow of the Association for Psychological Science.

Angela Haas, ENG, received the Hugh Burns award for outstanding dissertation at the Computers and Writing national conference in Davis, Calif. for “A Rhetoric of Alliance: What American Indians Can Tell Us about Digital and Visual Rhetoric.”

Grace Foote Johns, PHY, received the Agent of Change award from the American Association of University Women of Illinois.

John Freed, HIS Emeritus, received the Harry E. Pratt Memorial Award from the Illinois State Historical Society.

Willis Kern, WGLT, received the Best Reporter award from the Illinois Associated Press.

Charlie Schlenker, WGLT, received the Best Investigative Series award, Best Spot News award, Best Sports award and Best Use of Sound award from the Illinois Associated Press.

Brent Simonds, Lance Lippert and Steve Hunt, COM, Robert Lee, COE, Maureen Angell and Paula Crowley, SED, won the National Broadcasting Society’s Best Educational, Instructional or Corporate Video award for “Collaborative Classroom Management.”

Fred Smith, SOA, was appointed to the editorial board of PLoS ONE (Public Library of Science) and is the past-president of the American Association of Physical Anthropologists.

Joseph Zompetti, COM, was appointed interim president of the International Debate Education Association located in Amsterdam.

Presentations

Alison Bailey, PHI, presented “Reproductive Justice and the Globalization of Commercial Gestational Surrogacy” at the Philosophical Inquiry into Pregnancy, Childbirth and Mothering conference in Eugene, Ore.

Jeffrey Barrett, MAT, presented the poster “Children’s Measurement Project: A Longitudinal Study” at the Research and Evaluation on Education in Science and Engineering principal investigators meeting of the National Science Foundation in Washington, D.C., and “From Numerals to Intervals and Back: How Young Children Think about Measuring” at the 87th annual meeting of the National Council of Teachers of Math in Washington, D.C.

Bruce Burningham, LAN, presented “An Apology for the Actorly” at the Association for Hispanic Classical Theater annual convention in El Paso, Texas; “Bad Moon Rising: Lycanthropy, Friendship, and ‘The Dogs’ Colloquy” at the Renaissance Society of America annual meeting in Los Angeles, Calif.; and “The Persistent Voice of Hegemony: Conquest and Reconquest on the Early Spanish Stage” at the 44th International Congress on Medieval Studies in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Karen Coats, ENG, presented “What’s So Funny about Children’s Literature?” at the fifth annual Gryphon Lecture at the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign, and “If it Rhymes, It’s Funny”: Children’s Poetry and the Pattern Recogniton Theory of Humour” at the Poetry and Childhood conference at the British Library, University of Cambridge.

Chris De Santis, ENG, presented “Langston Hughes and the NAACP” at the Fight for Freedom: A Century of the NAACP and the Struggle for Racial Equality conference at the University of Kansas in Lawrence, Kan.

Jonathan Druker, LAN, presented “Masochism and the Conventions of Courtly Love in Leopardi’s Canti” at the American Association of Italian Studies annual conference in New York City, N.Y., and served as a juror at the Prix de la Fondation Auschwitz in Brussels, Belgium.

Kristin Dykstra, ENG, was part of the panel “New Poetry from Chile, Cuba, and Mexico: A Reading” at the Associated Writing Programs conference in Chicago.

Daniel Everett, LAN, was part of the “How Far Back in Human Evolution did Hominids Acquire Language” panel at the Symposium on Human Origins in Santa Barbara, Calif., presented “You Drink. You Drive. You Go to Jail. Where’s Recursion” at the “Recursion: Structural Complexity in Language and Cognition” conference in Amherst Mass., and “Endangered Languages, Lost Knowledge, and the Future” at the seminar for the Long Now Organization in San Francisco, Calif.

Amy Louise Wood, HIS, wrote “Lynching and Spectacle: Witnessing Racial Violence in America, 1890-1940,” which was published by the University of North Carolina Press.

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

Jeffrey Barrett, MAT, presented “Children’s Abstraction of Iterative Units to Measure Linear Space: A Trajectory” at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association in San Diego, Calif.

Jon Friesen, David Cedeño and Marjorie Jones, CHE, presented “Leishmanial Choline Kinase as a New Therapeutic Target” at the 237th national meeting of the American Chemical Society in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Virginia Gill, SOA, presented “Patient Agency in the Medical Visit” at the 2nd international meeting on Conversation Analysis and Clinical Encounters in Plymouth, England.

Susan Hildebrandt, LAN, presented “Teaching Creatively: Alternative Formats for L2 Methodology Courses” and “A Model for Teacher Education Communities of Practice: A Virginia Consortium” at the 6th international conference on Language Teacher Education in Washington, D.C.

Cynthia Huff, ENG, presented “Cross-stitches of the Family: Familial Discourses in Wuthering Heights and the Victorian Diary” and was the panel moderator for “Scripting New Spaces: Recovering and Reconstructing Female Identity in the Long Nineteenth Century” at the British Women Writers conference in Iowa City, Iowa.

Gina Hunter, SOA, was part of “The Promise and Practice of Campus-Based Student Ethnographic Research: The Ethnography of the University Initiative” session at the Central States Anthropological Society annual meetings in Urbana.

Susan Kim, ENG, presented “In Another Kingdom: Place, Text, and Vertigo in the Wonders of the East” at the 44th International Congress on Medieval Studies in Kalamazoo Mich., “Framing the World: Monstrosity, Identity, and the Wonders of the East” at the Medieval Academy of America in Chicago, and “Magic and Loss: History, Damage, and the Wonders of the East” at the Medieval Association of the Pacific meeting in Los Angeles, Calif.

Eric Larson, BSC, presented “G-quadruplex Recognition Is a Conserved Property of the MutS Homologs” at the 11th annual Midwest DNA Repair Symposium in Ann Arbor, Mich.

Carol Lind, ENG, presented “Monastic Laughter: Humor Theory and the Social Impact of the Exeter Double Entendre Riddles” at the 44th International Congress on Medieval Studies in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Juliette Lynd, LAN, presented “Putas asesinas y asesinadas: Gender and Power in Roberto Bolaño’s Fiction: Estrella Distante and Amuleto” at the 62nd annual Kentucky Foreign Language conference in Lexington, Ky., and “Poets and Prostitutes, Gender and Power in Roberto Bolaño’s Fiction: Savage Detectives and Amulet” at Bates College in Lewiston, Maine.

William McBride, ENG Emeritus, presented “The Great Escape-isms: Popular Utopian Animated Films for Children (and Adults)” at the American Comparative Literature Association annual meeting at Harvard University.

Craig McLaughlan, CHE, presented “Versatile Vanadium: Coordination Complexes for Materials and Catalysis” at Youngstown State University in Ohio, “It Takes Two to Tango but Do I Even Want to Dance?: A Cliché-Riddled Discussion of Clicker Use” at the City Colleges of Chicago and at the Teaching, Learning and Technology fair at Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville.

Robert McLaughlin, ENG, presented “Singing for Your Country: U.S. Servicemen in World War II-Era Broadway Musicals” at the Popular Culture Association/American Culture Association conference in New Orleans, La.

Joan Mullin, ENG, presented “Changing Direction: Tacking through the Waters of Institutional and Curricular Change with Writing Mentors” at the Conference on College Composition and Communication pre-conference workshop, International Writing Research, in San Francisco, Calif., “Writing Across the Curriculum Workshop” at the Hellenic American University in Athens, Greece, and “Rhetoric: Writing, Reading and Producing the Visual” at the Research in the Arts Authors’ symposium at the Royal Society of the Arts in London, England.

Robert Nelson, GEO, presented “Using Online Global Positioning System and Seismic Data for Class Room Explorations” for the North Central Section of the Geological Society of America annual meeting in Rockford.

Janice Neuleib, ENG, presented “Subversive Activities: Writing, Rhetoric, and Teaching” at the 15th Annual Southwest English Graduate symposium in Tempe Ariz., “The AP Language Synthesis Question” at the Conference for Illinois Teachers of English in Normal, and “Our History of Teaching Writing” at the Allerton conference in Urbana.

Krzysztof Ostaszewski, MAT, presented “Human Resources Management in a Financial Crisis” at BPI Polska in Warsaw, Poland, a workshop on “Regulatory Approach to Impaired or Failed Financial Institutions with Case Studies in Sweden, Canada, United Kingdom and the United States” at the Commission of Financial Supervision of the Government of the Republic of Poland, on the American professional actuarial education system at Fudan University in Shanghai, China, on the “Modigliani-Miller Theorem and Its Relationship to the Mortgage Derivatives Market” and “The Relationship of Asset-Liability Management to the Current Credit Crisis” at Shanghai Second Polytechnic University in Shanghai, China, and “Risk-based Capital for Insurance Companies in Europe and the United States” at the Insurance Congress of Developing Countries in Manila, Philippines.

Sally Parry, ENG, presented “Get Help Sgt. Lassie! Heroic Dogs in Hollywood

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

World War II Films” at the Popular Culture Association/American Culture Association conference in New Orleans, La.

Jamie Perry, CSD, presented “Current Imaging Research and Clinical Practices in the Management of Resonance Disorders and Velopharyngeal Dysfunctions” at the Illinois Speech Language and Hearing Association convention in Rosemont, and the poster “Using Patient-Specific MRI and 3D Computer Modeling to Study Normal and Abnormal Velopharyngeal Anatomy” at the American Cleft Palate-Craniofacial Association conference in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Paula Ressler, ENG, presented “Implementing the NCTE Resolution on Strengthening Teacher Knowledge of LGBT Issues” at the National Council of Teacher Education conference on English Education in Chicago.

Ali Riaz, POL, presented “Islamization of Public Sphere in Bangladesh” at the seminar on South Asian Islam in Global Context at the Center for South Asian and Indian Ocean Studies, Tufts University, and “Religion as a Political Ideology in South Asia” at the Politics of Religion in South Asia and Southeast Asia symposium at the Institute of South Asian Studies, Singapore National University.

Rachel Shively, LAN, presented “From the Virtual World to the Real World: An Interdisciplinary Approach to Pragmatic Development and Study Abroad” at the American Association of Applied Linguistics conference in Denver, Colo.

Fred Smith, SOA, presented “Upper Paleolithic Human Remains from Sandalja Cave Istia, Croatia” at the American Association of Physical Anthropologists meeting in Chicago.

Peter Smudde and Jeffrey Courtright, COM, presented “A Genre Perspective on Public Relations Message Design” at the 12th annual international Public Relations Research conference in Miami, Fla.

Michael Stevens, PSY, presented “Progress toward Internationalizing the U.S. Psychology Curriculum” at the meeting of the International Council of Psychologists in Mexico City, Mexico, and “Ethical Issues and the War on Terror” at the Interamerican Congress of Psychology in Guatemala City, Guatemala.

Liane Stillwell, PHI, presented “Wittgenstein’s Tractatus and On Certainty,” at the 6th International/Midwest Conference on Early Analytic Philosophy at Indiana University-Purdue University in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Mary Trouille, LAN, presented “A Match Made in Hell?: Bellart’s Contradictory Views on Failed Marriages in His Defense of Mme de l’Orme (Paris, 1803)” at the annual meeting of the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies in Richmond, Va.

Andrew Weeks, LAN, presented “Prospects of a Critical Edition of Paracelsus” at the Zentrum fuer Mittelalter-nd Renaissanceforschung in Munich, Germany; “Faustian Bargains in Reformation Context” and “Humanism, Naturalism, and Theology in the Reformation” at the Sixteenth Century Society conference in Geneva, Switzerland; and “Paracelsus und Raelais” for the Leibniz Society in Hanover, Germany.

Curtis White, ENG, presented “The Barbaric Heart: Capitalism and the Crisis of Nature” for the Humanities Education and Research Association in Chicago.

Publications

Joe Amato, ENG, wrote “Cardinal Numbers, Ordinal Beauties,” which was published in Crayon, Vol. 5.

Joseph Armstrong, BSC, co-authored “Sequential Florivory/saproflorivory of Anaxagorea crassipetala (Annonaceae) by Diathoneura tessellata (Drosophilidae),” which was published in the Annals of the Entomological Society of America, Vol. 102.

Jeffrey Barrett and Norma Presmeg, MAT, wrote “Prototypes and Categorical Reasoning: A Perspective to Explain How Children Learn about Interactive Geometry Objects,” which was published in Understanding Geometry for a Changing World.

Ray Bergner, PSY, co-authored “Pornography, Effects on Relationships,” which was included in The Sage Encyclopedia of Human Relationships, co-edited by Susan Sprecher, SOA.

Doris Houston, SWK, co-authored “Promoting Stability and Well-being among Families Who Adopt Children out of Foster Care: Moving toward a Multi-systems Model of Support,” which was published in Child Welfare, Vol. 87.

Christopher Breu, ENG, wrote “Middlesex Meditations: Understanding and Teaching Intersex,” which was published in the English Journal, Vol. 98.

Robert Broad, ENG, wrote “Portfolio Scoring: A Contradiction in Terms,” which was published in Writing Assessment: A Critical Sourcebook.

Bruce Burningham, LAN, wrote “os Manchiadas,” which was published in USA Cervantes: 39 cervantistas en Estados Unidos and “De Laudatione Cervantina” in Tradition and Innovation in Early Modern Spanish Studies: Essays in Memory of Carroll B. Johnson.

Becca Chase and Paula Ressler, ENG, wrote “An LGBT/Queer Glossary” and “EJ in Focus: Sexual Identity and Gender Variance: Meeting the Educational Challenges,” which were published in the English Journal, Vol. 98.

Karen Coats, ENG, wrote “Wet Work and Dry Work: Notes from a Laccanian Mother,” which was published in A Narrative Compass: Stories that Guide Women’s Lives.

Donald Davis, HIS Emeritus, authored “Distorted Mirrors: Americans and Their Relations with Russia and

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

China in the Twentieth Century,” which was published by the University of Missouri Press.

Jonathan Druker, LAN, wrote “Primo Levi and Humanism after Auschwitz: Posthumanist Reflections,” which was published by Palgrave Macmillan USA.

Clifford Dykstra, CHE, wrote “The N₂-Benzene Tethered Top,” which was published in the Journal of Molecular Structure-Theochem, Vol. 895.

Daniel Everett, LAN, wrote “Pirahã Culture and Grammar: A Reply to Some Critics,” which was published in The Journal of the Linguistic Society of America, Language; “Wari Intentional State Construction Predicates” in Investigations of the Syntax-Semantics-Pragmatics Interface; “Human Subjects, Human Rights” in New Scientist and “Review of ‘In the Land of Invented Languages, by Arika Okrent’” in the San Francisco Chronicle.

Gregory Ferrence and Timothy Lash, CHE, authored “MacDonald-type Reactions Using Bis-acrylaldehydes: Synthesis of an Expanded Sapphyrin and Vinyllogous Hexaphyrins,” which was published in Organic Letters, Vol. 11.

Kass Fleisher, ENG, co-authored “Review of Was: Annales Nomadique: A Novel of Internet by Michael Joyce,” which was included in American Book Review, Vol. 30, and “Anger Management” in the Chronicle Review.

John Freed, HIS Emeritus, wrote “Educating Illinois: Illinois State University, 1857-2007,” which was published by the Donning Company Publishers.

Jon Friesen and Marjorie Jones, CHE, wrote “Protective Effects of Covalent Cross-Linking on Proteolysis of Human Coproporphyrinogen Oxidase and Implications for Porphyrin,” which was published in the American Journal of Biochemistry and Biotechnology, Vol. 4.

Gabriel Gudding, ENG, wrote “Literary Narcissism and the Manufacture of Scandal” and the poems “My Buttocks” and “On the Rectum of Peacocks” which were translated into Dutch and published in Den Blå Port: Tidsskrift for litteratur, Vol. 80.

Angela Haas, ENG, wrote “Wired Wombs: A Rhetorical Analysis of Online Infertility Support Communities,” which was published in Webbing Cyberfeminist Practices.

Julie Jung, ENG, wrote “Theorizing Service, Servicing Theory,” which was published in Renewing Rhetoric’s Relation to Composition.

Katherine Kerr, ENG, wrote “Egrets in Abundance” and “Song of Songs,” which were included in Interdisciplinary Studies in Literature and the Environment, Vol. 16.

Kenton Machina, PHI Emeritus, Anu Gokhale and Paul Brauchle, TEC, co-authored “Research and Teaching: Development and Validation of a Scale to Measure Attitudes toward Science and Technology,” which appeared in the Journal of College Science Teaching, Vol. 38.

Dave Malone and Elizabeth King, GEO, co-authored “Oxygen Isotope Evidence of Heated Pore Fluid Interaction with Mafic Dikes at Cathedral Cliffs, Wyoming,” which was published in The Mountain Geologist, Vol. 46, and Malone wrote “Dynamics of the Emplacement of the Heart Mountain Allochthon at White Mountain: Constraints from Calcite Twin Strain, Anhyseretic Magnetic Susceptibility, and Thermodynamic Calculations” in the Geological Society of America Bulletin, Vol. 121.

Robert McLaughlin, ENG, wrote “Cultural Explorations: Pastiche, Mimicry, and Postcolonial Critique in Pacific Overtures,” which was published in The Sontheim Review, Vol. 15.

Joan Mullin, ENG, wrote “The Reciprocal Nature of Successful Mentoring Relationships: Collaboration and Mentoring,” published in Stories of Mentoring.

Robert Nelson, GEO, co-authored “Geology of the Mackinaw River Watershed, McLean, Woodford and Tazewell Counties, Illinois,” which was published in the Illinois State Geological Survey Geological Science Field Trip Guidebook.

Krzysztof Ostaszewski, MAT, co-authored “Alternative Pricing Models of Deposit Insurance Under Capital Forbearance,” which was published in the Asia-Pacific Journal of Risk and Insurance, Vol. 3.

Stephen Perry, COM, co-authored “Commercial Quality Influence on Perceptions of Television News,” which was published in Electronic News, Vol. 3.

Ali Riaz, POL, wrote “Interactions of Transnational and Local Islam in Bangladesh,” which was published in Transnational Islam in South and Southeast Asia: Movements, Networks and Conflict Dynamics.

Rachel Shively, LAN, wrote “L2 Acquisition of [β], [ð], and [γ] in Spanish: Impact of Experience, Linguistic Environment, and Learner Variables,” which was published in the Southwest Journal of Linguistics, Vol. 27, and co-authored “Perception of Irony by L2 Learners of Spanish” in Applied Linguistics, Vol. 16.

Aaron Smith, ENG, wrote “The History of Be Fixing To: Grammaticization, Sociolinguistic Distribution and Emerging Literary Spaces,” which was included in English Today, Vol. 97.

Fred Smith, SOA, co-authored “The Human Lineage,” which was published by Wiley-Blackwell and “Upper Paleolithic Human Remains from Sandalja Cave, Istia, Croatia” in the American Journal of Physical Anthropology Supplement, Vol. 48.

Michael Stevens, PSY, co-authored “Teaching Psychology around the World: Vol.2,” which was published by Cambridge Scholars Publishing and the CD-ROM “Psychology: IUPyS Global Resource” published by Psychology Press.

Steven Peters, CHE, presented “Electron Initiated Chemistry of Isocyanates” at the 237th national meeting of the American Chemical Society in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

Richard Sullivan, SOA, authored “Density Matters: The Union Density Bias and the Implications for Labor Movement Revitalization,” which was published in Mobilization: An International Quarterly, Vol. 14, and co-authored “Alienation and Anomie” in the Encyclopedia of Human Relationships.

James Swindler, PHI, co-edited “International Perspectives on Pragmatism,” which was published by Cambridge Scholars Publishing.

Roberta Trites, ENG, co-edited “Narrative Compass: Stories that Guide Women’s Lives,” which was published by the University of Illinois Press, co-authored the introduction in the book and wrote “Academic Grief: Journeys with Little Women,” which was included in the book.

Jeffrey Wagman, PSY, co-edited “Studies in Perception and Action X,” which was published by Taylor and Francis Group, and co-authored “Geometric, Kinetic-kinematic, and Intentional Constraints Influence Willingness to Pass under a Barrier” in Experimental Psychology, Vol. 56, and “Is Perceptual Learning Unimodal” in Ecological Psychology, Vol. 21.

Chen Xu Wang, BSC, co-authored “Rosiglitazone Alone or in Combination with Tissue Palsminogen Activator Improves Functional Recovery in an Embolic Model of Stroke in Rats,” which was published in the Journal of Cerebral Blood Flow and Metabolism, “Hyperthermia Aggravates Ischemic Brain Injury” in the International Journal of Stroke, Vol. 4, and “Homocysteine-mediated Reduction of Endothelial Progenitor Cells in Stroke Patients is through Apoptotic Cell Death” in the Journal of Cerebral Blood Flow and Metabolism, Vol. 29.

James Webb, CHE, wrote “Preliminary Water Quality Assessment of Spunky Bottoms Restored Wetland,” which was published in the Journal of Environmental Sciences and Health, Vol. 44.

Andrew Weeks, LAN, authored “Boehme, Paracelsus und die Quellen der Metaphysik des Willens,” which was published in Philosophien des Willens: Boehme, Schelling, Schopenhauer.

Kirstin Hotelling Zona, ENG, wrote “May Swenson,” which was included in The Literary Encyclopedia and the poems “Downtown El Paso,” “Winter Sunday” and “West Lake Crib” in Along the Mackinaw.

College of Business

Accomplishments

Kimberly Judson, MKT, received the Midwest Business Administration Association International Award for Outstanding Paper in Marketing Education.

Deborah Lindberg, ACC, received an Outstanding Educator Award from the Illinois CPA Society.

Douglas Micklich, MQM, was elected to the Board of Directors for the Association for Business Simulation and Experiential Learning.

Presentations

Karen Hosack and Katrin Varner, FIL, presented “Political Speech in the Workplace: Protected or Unprotected?” and Varner and Carson Varner, FIL, presented “Sustainability in Midwest Agriculture: Legal, Ethical and Social Issues” at the Midwest Business Administration Association international conference in Chicago, and Culture of Law in the Drivers Seat? Studies in Comparative Law” at the first triconental conference on Global Advances in Business Communication in Ypsilanti, Mich.

Thomas Howe, FIL, presented “Students’ Understanding of the Effects of Exchange Rate Changes” at the MBAA international conference in Chicago.

Domingo Castelo Joaquin, FIL, was part of the “Health Reinsurance – A Subsiding Need or a New Turn” session at the Society of Actuaries health spring meeting in Toronto, Canada, and presented “Introducing Simulation Modeling in Capital Budgeting” at the academic symposium on Monte Carlo Simulation in Houston, Texas.

Kimberly Judson, MKT, presented “Teaching Brand Strategy: Using NASCAR as an Example of a Well-Branded Organization” at the MBAA international conference in Chicago.

Kimberly Judson, MKT, presented “Building Brand Community Within Organizations: A Viable Internal Branding Alternative?” at the MBAA international conference in Chicago.

Han Kang, FIL, presented “The Teleunderwriting Process and Protective Study” at the International Applied Business research conference in San Antonio, Texas.

Somnath Lahiri, MQM, presented “What Factors Determine Partnership Quality in Offshore Outsourcing? Viewing through the Lens of BPO Providers” at the annual meeting of the Academy of International Business in San Diego, Calif.

G. N. Naidu and Askar Choudhury, FIL, presented “Capital Market Integration Before and After Accession to the European Union,” at the MBAA international conference in Chicago.

Douglas Micklich, MQM, presented “Do First Mover Advantages Exist in Competitive Board Games: The Importance of Zugzwang” at the Association for Business Simulation and Experiential Learning meeting in Seattle, Wash.

Publications

Aysen Bakir, MKT, wrote “Some Assembly Required: A Comparative Analysis of Disclaimers in Children’s TV Advertising in Turkey and The United States,” which was published in the Journal of Advertising Research, Vol. 49.

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

Sylvie Bouriaux, FIL, co-authored "Use of Interest Rate Derivatives by U.S. Based Domestic and Global Mutual Funds," which was published in the Journal of Management Research, Vol. 1.

S. J. Chang, FIL, wrote "When East and West Meet: An Essay on the Importance of Cultural Understanding in Global Business Practice and Education," which was published in the Journal of International Business and Cultural Studies, Vol. 2.

George Flanigan, FIL, wrote "New Evidence on Why Casualty Insurers Are Obligated to Continue to Pay Defense Costs After the Exhaustion of CGL Indemnity Limits," which was published in Coverage, Vol. 18, and "The CGL Insurer's Obligation To Pay Defense Costs After Exhaustion of Indemnity Limits on Policies Issued Before 1966" in the CPCU eJournal.

Domingo Castelo Joaquin, FIL, authored "Value at Risk: Is a Theoretically Consistent Axiomatic Formulation Possible?" which was published in The Quarterly Review of Economics and Finance, Vol. 49.

Kimberly Judson, MKT, co-authored "Building a University Brand from Within: University Administrators' Perspectives of Internal Branding," which was published in Services Marketing Quarterly, Vol. 30, and "Preventing Consumer Grudges Across the Age Spectrum: Time is of the Essence" in the Academy of Marketing Studies Journal, Vol. 12.

Somnath Lahiri, MQM, co-authored "Anticipated Rivalry as a Moderator of the Relationship Between Firm Resources and Performance," which was published in the International Journal of Management, Vol. 26, and "The Effects of Internal Resources and Partnership Quality on Firm Performance: An Examination of Indian BPO Providers" in the Journal on International Management, Vol. 15.

Linda Leinicke and Joyce Ostrosky, ACC, co-authored "Six Cultural Pillars of Successful Audit Departments," which was published in Internal Auditor, Vol. LXV.

Debbie Lindberg, ACC, co-authored "Sky Scientific, Inc.: An Auditing Minefield," which was published in Issues in Accounting Education, Vol. 24.

Matt Nelson, ACC, co-authored "Determinants of Open Source Software Project Success: A Longitudinal Study," which was published in Decision Support Systems, Vol. 46, and "Determinants of the Choice of Open Source Software License" in the Journal of Management Information Systems, Vol. 24.

Matthew Sheep, MQM, co-authored "Growing Pains and Gains: Framing Identity Dynamics as Opportunities for Identity Growth," which was published in Exploring Positive Identities and Organizations: Building a Theoretical and Research Foundation.

Dallas Long presented "Finding the Fish in the Sea: Partnering with Student Services to Provide Library Outreach" at the Association of College and Research Libraries national conference in Seattle, Wash.

Jean MacDonald presented "Collaboration between Marketing Students and the Library: An Experiential Learning Project to Promote Reference Services" at the Association of College and Research Libraries national conference in Seattle, Wash.

Ted Schwitzner was a panel presenter for "Next Generation Library Systems: Dream or Reality" at the Ex Libris Users of North America ELUNA conference in Richmond, Va.

Publications

Priscilla Matthews contributed to "Serials Review Index," which was published by Serials Review, Vol. 35.

Jean MacDonald co-authored "Collaboration between Marketing Students and the Library: An Experiential Learning Project to Promote Reference Services," which was published in College and Research Libraries, Vol. 70.

Chad Kahl wrote "Population Studies," which was published in the 17th edition of Magazines for Libraries.

Sharon Naylor wrote "Disabilities," which was published in the 17th edition of Magazines for Libraries.

Vanette Schwartz wrote "Cultural Studies," which was published in the 17th edition of Magazines for Libraries.

Katherine Weir wrote "Statistics," which was published in the 17th edition of Magazines for Libraries.

Ross Griffiths, MIL, co-authored "Insider Theft: Reviews and Recommendations from the Archive and Library Professional Literature," which was published in Library and Archival Security, Vol. 22.

Milner Library Accomplishments

Toni Tucker has been reappointed to chair the Association of College & Research Libraries Marketing Academic and Research Libraries Committee.

Presentations

Kathleen Lonbom presented "Discovering and Uncovering the Voice of a Silenced Collection: The Art of a Child, A Historic Perspective" at the Art Libraries Society of North America 37th annual conference in Indianapolis, Ind.

College of Applied Science & Technology

Accomplishments

Marlene Mawson, KNR Emerita, was inducted into the Kansas Athletics Hall of Fame.

Chad McEvoy, KNR, was appointed co-editor of the Journal of Issues in Intercollegiate Athletics.

Chris Merrill, TEC, has been named to the Board of Program Reviewers for the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education.

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

Dan Wilson, TEC, was elected to the executive board of the Accrediting Council for Collegiate Graphic Communications.

James Wolf, ITK, was named to the editorial board of Electronic Markets - The International Journal on Networked Business and was selected for the National Library of Medicines fellowship program in BioMedical Informatics at the Marine Biology Laboratory.

Presentations

Bill Anderson, FCS, presented "Mutual Benefits at Selected Intergenerational Shared Sites" at the annual conference of the Illinois Council on Family Relations in Normal, and "Emotion and Reflection in the Classroom: Thinking-Feeling-Acting as a Virtual Parent" at the annual conference of the Family Science Association in St. George, Utah.

Beverly Barham, HSC, and Paul Walker, AGR, presented the poster "Effects of Feeding Varying Percentages of Wet Distiller's Grain on the Prevalence of E. coli and Salmonella Species in Cattle Manure" at the American Society of Microbiology annual meeting in Philadelphia, Pa.

Beverly Barham, HSC, presented "The PPB Approach to Building a Team Dynamic" at the national Clinical Laboratory Educators conference in Denver, Colo.

Richard Boser, TEC, presented "The New Generation of Construction Managers: How to Relate to Your Future Employees" at the International Builders Show in Las Vegas, Nev.

Amy Chou, ITK, presented "Information System Characteristics and Social Network Software Adoption" and "Change Auditing in Information System Consulting" at the Southwest Decision Science Institute annual meeting in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Dan Elkins, KNR, presented "The Influence of Recreational Sports Participation on Sense of Campus Community" and presented with Brent Beggs, KNR, "The Influence of Leisure Motivation on Leisure Satisfaction," "Motivation for Participation in Campus Recreation Based on Activity Type" and "The Effectiveness of Web Pages in Marketing Campus Recreational Services" at the National Intramural and Recreational Sports Association annual conference in Charlotte, N.C. Beggs presented "The Role of Competition in Recreational Sport Programming" at the Indiana Parks and Recreation Association state conference in Bloomington, Ind.

Anu Gokhale, TEC, presented "Effectiveness of Synchronous Communication in Online Courses" at the Wimba Connect conference in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Jan Hill, CJS, presented "Prosecuting Child Sexual Abuse Offenders: A Case Study of Victim, Family, Offender, Evidentiary and Case Characteristics" at the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences conference in Boston, Mass.

Sesha Kethineni, CJS, presented "Treatment of Victims of Domestic Violence by the Police in Chennai (India)" and "All Women Police Stations in Tamil Nadu, India, and their Focus on Crimes Against Women" at the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences conference in Boston, Mass.

Bee Lim and James Wolf, ITK, presented "Commerce on the Cloud: A Case Study of Cloud Computing" at the 6th international joint conference on Computer Science and Software Engineering in Phuket, Thailand.

Chris Merrill and Joshua Brown, TEC, and Jenny Daugherty, CeMaST, presented "The Future of TE Master's Degrees: STEM" at the annual Intern-tional Technology Education Association conference in Louisville, Ky.

Jeff Grabb presented "Scholarship Reconsidered and Digitized: New Opportunities for Faculty Technology Dialogues" at the EDUCAUSE Midwest regional conference in Chicago.

Amit Shesh, ITK, presented "3D-Aware Image Editing for Out of Bounds Photography" at Graphics Interface in Kelowna, Canada.

Yongning Tang, ITK, presented "Sharing End-user Negative Symptoms for Improving Overlay Network Dependability" at the 39th IEEE/IFIP international conference on Dependable Systems and Networks in Lisbon, Portugal.

Publications

Sesha Kethineni and Dawn Beichner, CJS, wrote "A Comparison of Civil and Criminal Orders of Protection as Remedies for Domestic Violence Victims in a Midwestern County," which was published in the Journal of Family Violence, Vol. 24. Kethineni co-authored "Police Handling of Domestic Violence Cases in Tamil Nadu, India," which was published in the Journal of Contemporary Criminal Justice, Vol. 25.

Pruthikrai Mahatanankoon, ITK, co-authored "Attitude toward Mobile Text Messaging: An Expectancy-based Perspective," which was published in the Journal of Computer-Mediated Communication, Vol. 13, and authored "Internet

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

Sheryl Jenkins presented the poster “A Transcultural Comparison of Critical Thinking” at the 33rd annual Midwest Nursing Research Society conference in Minneapolis, Minn.

Work/Play Balance” in the Encyclopedia of Information Science and Technology.

Nweze Nnakwe, FCS, wrote “Dietary Patterns and Prevalence of Food Insecurity among Low-income Families Participating in Community Food Assistance Programs in a Midwest Town,” which was published in the Family and Consumer Sciences Research Journal, Vol. 36.

Cara Rabe-Hemp, CJS, authored “Policewomen or Policemen? Doing Gender and Police Work,” which was published in Feminist Criminology, Vol. 4.

Kyoungwon Suh, ITK, co-authored “Characteristics of YouTube Traffic at a Campus Network: Measurements, Models and Implications,” which was published in Elsevier Computer Networks Journal, Vol. 53, and “Passive Online Detection of 802.11 Traffic Using Sequential Hypothesis Testing with TCP ACK-Pairs” in IEEE Transactions on Mobile Computing, Vol. 8.

Kerry Tudor, AGR, co-authored “Milling Characteristics of Corn and Yellow, Short-season Field Peas Intended for Swine Diets,” which was published in The Professional Animal Scientist, Vol. 25.

Randy Winter, AGR, co-authored “Inclusion of Yellow Field Peas and Car-bohydrase Enzyme in Nursery Pig Diets to Improve Growth Performance,” which was published in The Professional Animal Scientist, Vol. 25.

Mennonite College of Nursing

Presentations

Mary Dyck and Jennifer Mool presented “Administrative Strategies to Prevent Weight Loss in Nursing Home Residents” at the 33rd annual Midwest Nursing Research Society conference in Minneapolis, Minn., and the poster “Gerontological Clinical Simulation Laboratory” at the Connecting the Dots: Geriatric Nursing, Education and Clinical Simulation conference in Durham, N.C.

Susan Kossman presented the poster “Needs Assessment for Blue Sky: Technology-Enhanced Chronic Care Management for Teens with Depression” at the Midwest Nursing Research Society conference in Minneapolis, Minn.

Wendy Woith presented the poster “Health Care Workers’ Knowledge of Tuberculosis and Infection Control” at the 33rd annual Midwest Nursing Research Society conference in Minneapolis, Minn.

Publications

Elizabeth Carlson co-authored “An Ethnographic Approach to Interpreting a Mental Illness Photovoice Exhibit,” which was published in the Archives of Psychiatric Nursing, Vol. 23.

Susan Kossman wrote “The Power of Nurse Educators: Welcoming and Unwelcoming Behaviors,” which was published in Transforming Nursing Education: The Culturally Inclusive Environment.

Pam Lindsey authored “Starting an Accelerated Baccalaureate Nursing Program: Challenges and Opportunities for Creative Educational Innovations,” which was published in the Journal of Nursing Education, Vol. 48.

College of Education

Accomplishments

Phyllis McCluskey-Titus, EAF, received the Research and Publication Award from the Association of College and University Housing Officers-International, and the Gold Award for most improved scholarly journal from the Society of National Association Publications for The Journal of College and University Student Housing, for which she is the editor.

Presentations

Maureen Angell, Hedda Meadan and Julia Stoner, SED, presented “Siblings of Children with ASD: Lived Experiences and Perceived Support Needs;” Stoner and Angell presented “Teacher Perspectives on Dysphagia Management and ‘Parents’ and Guardians’ Perspectives on the Management of their Children’s Feeding/Swallowing Disorders;” Angell, Stoner and Barbara Fulk, SED, presented “A Model for Promoting Self-Determination in Students with Disabilities;” and Angell, Stoner and Debra Shelden, SED, presented “Communication: Considerations for Establishing Trust with Mothers of Children with Disabilities” at the Council for Exceptional Children annual convention and expo in Seattle, Wash.

Jeffrey Bakken, SED, Patricia Klass, EAF, and Phyllis Metcalf -Turner, C&I, presented “Promoting Interdisciplinary Activities among Department Chairs” at the annual Academic Chairpersons conference in Orlando, Fla. Bakken presented “Mnemonic Strategy Instruction: Helping Students Remember” at the annual meeting of the Sam Houston Council for Exceptional Children in Huntsville, Texas, and “Best Practices for Transitioning Multicultural Learners with Exceptionalities” and “Research-based Expository Comprehension Strategies for Students with Learning Disabilities” at the annual meeting of the Council for Exceptional Children in Seattle, Wash.

Diane Dean, EAF, presented “Advancing Diversity in the Academic Presidency: The Presidential Aspirations, Preparation and Search Experiences of CAOs of Color in U.S. Colleges and Universities,” “Shaping Public Policy: Case Studies of Effective Policy Centers and Think Tanks,” “A Typology of Government Affairs Functions and Strategies in U.S. Colleges and Universities,” and the poster “Views on Excellence in American, Finnish and Greek Universities” at the American Education Research Association conference in San Diego, Calif., and presented with

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

Erika Hunt, EAF, “Student Consumerism and College Choice” and with Zeng Lin, Stacy Otto and Lynne Curry, EAF, “Fixed Tuition: What Does It Fix?” at the Association for Institutional Research conference in Atlanta, Ga.

Park Do-Young, C&I, presented “Using the Metacognitive Practice of Self-Monitoring to Minimize Student Resistance to Inquiry” at the 21st annual meeting of Ethnographic and Qualitative Research conference in Cedarville, Ohio.

Lara Handsfield, C&I, presented “Is this Legal? Curricular Spaces, Tactical Positioning, and Literacy Instruction in a Fourth Grade Bilingual Classroom” at the American Educational Research Association annual meeting in San Diego, Calif.

Rebecca Houtsma, Thomas Metcalf School, presented “Checklists: Improve Middle School Writing, Attention and Motivation” at the 49th annual Illinois Speech Language Hearing Association convention in Chicago.

Ken Jerich, C&I, presented “Providing Best Practices for Urban School Mentors Who Work With Beginning Teachers To Enhance Student Learning in Large Urban Schools;” and with Pauline Clardy, C&I, “Realizing the Democratic Ideal Through a Commitment to Induction and Mentoring: A Position Paper to Support Our Graduates and their Schools Who Partner and Work with Us;” and with Clardy and Robert Fisher, C&I Emeritus, “Induction and Mentoring, Schools and Universities Working Together: A Fall Conference Summary Report of Participant Responses On Realizing the Democratic Ideal Through a Commitment to Induction and Mentoring” at the Association of Teacher Educators conference in Dallas, Texas.

Maribeth Lartz and Tracy Meehan, SED, presented “Early Intervention for Children with Cochlear Implants: The Importance of Social-emotional Development” for the Council for Exceptional Children in Seattle, Wash., and for the Association of College Educators: Deaf/Hard of Hearing in New Orleans, La.

Zeng Lin, EAF, presented “A Comparative Study of Refereed Journal Articles Published by Native and Foreign Born Faculty in Four Year Colleges in the United States” to the International Comparative Education Society in Charleston, S.C.

Phil Parette, Craig Blum and Emily Watts, SED, presented “Use of Microsoft Powerpoint and Direct Instruction to Support Emergent Literacy Skill Development among Young At Risk Children” and “Engaging Young Children in an Emergent Literacy Curriculum Using Microsoft PowerPoint: Development, Considerations, and Opportunities” at the international conference on Multimedia and ICT in Education in Lisbon, Portugal, and the poster “Developing and Using PowerPoint Templates to Teach Preschool Children Phonological Awareness” at the Council for Exceptional Children convention and expo in Seattle, Wash.

John Presley, EAF, served on the panel “Faculty Roles and Rewards in the Engaged University” and presented “Life Beyond the Provost Office” at the Academic Affairs meeting of the American Association of Colleges and Universities in Savannah, Ga., and “Getting Started with ADP” at the national meeting of the American Democracy Project in Baltimore, Md.

Amy Reiman and Kate Pole, U-High, presented “Examining Social Constructions as a Theme for the Classroom, with Emphasis Placed on Cross-Curricular Opportunities” at the Conference for Illinois Teachers of English in Normal.

Laurie Sexton, SED, presented “Meeting the Unique Needs of All God’s Children” at the Lincoln Christian College Christian Educator symposium in Lincoln.

James Thompson and Debra Shelden, SED, presented “A Follow-up Study of Students with Disabilities Who Exited an Urban Public High School from 1997-2004” at the Council for Exceptional Children convention and expo in Seattle, Wash.

Donna Zawatski, Thomas Metcalf School, presented “Taking the Plunge: Adding Technology to Your Composing Curriculum” at the Illinois Music Educator’s Association conference in Peoria.

Publications

Maureen Angell, Julia Stoner and Debra Sheldon, wrote “Trust in Education Professionals: Perspectives of Mothers of Children with Disabilities,” which was published in Remedial and Special Education, Vol. 30.

Jeff Bakken and Phil Parette, SED, wrote “Self Determination and Persons with Developmental Disabilities,” which was published in Advances in Special Education: Autism and Developmental Disabilities: Current Practices and Issues, Vol. 18. Bakken wrote “Improving Comprehension” and co-authored “Teaching Children to Read,” both included in Culturally Responsive Literacy Instruction.

Park Do-Young, C&I, co-authored “Different Conceptions of the Nature of Science among Preservice Elementary Teachers of Two Countries,” which was published in the Journal of Elementary Science Education, Vol. 21.

Lara Handsfield, C&I, co-authored “Cognition and Misrecognition: A Bourdieuan Analysis of Cognitive Strategy Instruction in a Linguistically and Culturally Diverse Classroom,” which was published in the Journal of Literacy Research, Vol. 42.

Zeng Lin, EAF, co-authored “Imported Talents: Demographic Characteristics, Achievement and Job Satisfaction of Foreign Born Full Time Faculty in Four-Year American Colleges,” which was published in Higher Education, Vol 57.

Phil Parette, Craig Blum and Emily Watts, SED, wrote “Teaching Word Rec-

Donna Zawatski (left), Thomas Metcalf School, and Kimberly McCord (right), MUS, presented “Swingin’ With the Orffcats” at the Illinois Music Educator’s Association conference in Peoria.

Media Relations/News Service
 Campus Box 3250
 Normal, IL 61790-3250

Faculty and staff accomplishments, presentations, publications

ognition to Young Children Using Microsoft PowerPoint Coupled with Direct Instruction,” which was published in the Early Childhood Education Journal, Vol. 36, “Use of Microsoft PowerPoint and Direct Instruction to Support Emergent Literacy Skill Development among Young At Risk Children” in Research, Reflections and Innovations in Integrating ICT in Education, Vol. 2, and “Engaging Young Children in an Emergent Literacy Curriculum Using Microsoft PowerPoint: Development, Considerations and Opportunities” in Research, Reflections and Innovations in Integrating ICT in Education, Vol. 1.

John Presley, EAF, wrote “All God’s Words in his Left Hand Pocket: Joshua Podro, Robert Graves and ‘The Nazarene Gospel Restored,’” which was published in The Art of Collaboration: Essays on Robert Graves and his Contemporaries, four poems, “Steps,” “How My Interview Went,” “Minimalist” and “Tell No One” along with the essay “Poems, Poet, Detective, Trickster,” which were included in Trickster’s Way, “Supporting a Strong Civic Engagement Program Through the Campus Network: A Provost’s Perspective” in Advancing a Civic Agenda and co-edited “The Future of Higher Education: Perspectives from America’s Academic Leaders” for which he wrote the introduction.

James Thompson, SED, co-authored “Conceptualizing Supports and the Support Needs of People with Intellectual Disability,” which was published in Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities, Vol. 47, and “The Efficacy of the Supports Intensity Scale to Predict Extraordinary Support Needs” in the American Journal on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities, Vol. 114.

Ellis Hurd, C&I, presented “The Reflexivity of Pain and Privilege: An Autoethnography of (Mestizo) Identity and Other Mestizo Voices” at the 5th International Congress of Qualitative Inquiry in Urbana.