

ON THE Chocolate TRAIL

February 9–10

RABBI DEBBIE PRINZ
visit to ISU, IWU, and MMT

BRUNCH AND TALK

“Jews on the Chocolate Trail”

10–Noon, Sunday, February 9

MOSES MONTEFIORE TEMPLE
102 Robinhood Lane, Bloomington

Cost: $7.50

Pre-registration and RSVP are required by Feb. 6.
Call (309) 663-3182.

LECTURE AND DINNER

“Jews in New Spain Ritualize Chocolate” followed by an early modern-themed dinner

6–8 p.m., Sunday, February 9

TURFLER ROOM, MEMORIAL CENTER
ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
104 E University Ave, Bloomington

Cost: Free for IWU students, faculty and staff;
$10 for community members, payable at the door
by cash or check

Online registration required by Feb. 7.
Email ome@iwu.edu for the required link.

Sponsored by IWU’s Jewish Student Association; Office of Multifaith Engagement; World Languages, Literatures, and Cultures; and Student Senate

WORKSHOP AND TASTING

“What is the Best Chocolate? Values Mix into our Chocolate Eating”

2–3:30 p.m., Sunday, February 9

GREEN TOP CO-OP
921 E. Washington St., Bloomington

Free and open to the public

Sponsored by Illinois State University’s Food Studies, the Department of Sociology and Anthropology, and the Harold K. Sage Fund

LECTURE

“What Did Alexander Hamilton Drink?
Colonial Chocolate Trade”

4:30–6 p.m., Monday, February 10

CENTER FOR THE VISUAL ARTS, ROOM 147
ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY
468 W Beaufort St, Normal

Free and open to the public

Sponsored by Illinois State University’s Department of History and the Harold K. Sage Fund

ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY
Illinois' first public university